Chapter 1

Introduction

1.1 What is this Template?

This template helps you to produce your project report according to the format prescribed by IISc.

1.1.1 Organization of this Template

This MS-Word template is organized into different chapters and each chapter again in to sections and sub-sections.

Chapter 2

Literature Review

2.1 Doing a literature review

A literature review is used to explore similar works and contrast against them.

2.1.1 Closely related works

You need to get into details for works that are most related to yours and argue your novelty.

Chapter 3

Methodology and Implementation

3.1 Methods used in the project

Describe the key techniques and methods proposed and used in your projects.

3.1.1 Architecture

This chapter is also a good place to put in architecture diagrams and algorithms.

Chapter 4

Results and Discussions

4.1 Experimental results

Report the experiments that you conducted and results that you observed.

4.2 Key observations

Highlight the key outcomes.

Chapter 5

Conclusions

What are the key takeaways.
